Student's Name (printed) _____

I, the undersigned student, understand that Traders Point Christian Academy is a private Christian school with the purpose of educating students in areas of spiritual, academic, physical, and social growth. I am attending TPCA out of a desire to grow in all ways that honor God and the Lord Jesus Christ. I also seek the development of all potential skills, knowledge and character that are available to me through God's design. With this understanding and these goals, I agree to the following:

- To develop the application of the Christian worldview seen in my learning experience in the rest of my life just as I do at school.
- To support my teachers in their plan for my educational experience by demonstrating respect and confidence in each teacher and his/her educational leadership.
- To complete my homework, projects and other school related activities through a good study setting and work habits at home.
- To be in attendance on a daily basis unless prohibited by illness or other extenuating circumstances.
- To honor my parents' financial investment by doing my best in my school work.
- To cooperate with disciplinary procedures as necessary by accepting correction and any needed follow-up that should be taken at home.
- To participate in all educational activities, including school sponsored special events, trips away from school premises and other instructional opportunities by becoming knowledgeable of plans, times and supplies needed to participate.

I understand that the school operates on Biblical truths as its entire foundation, including all instruction and discipline.

If there are questions or problems on our part in any of these areas, I agree to seek resolution through the proper school channels in ways that are respectful of school policy and staff.
